"HOSPITAL INSURANCE ACT."

PURSUANT to the provisions of section 35 of the "Hospital Insurance Act" and of section 8 of the "Interpretation Act," His Honour the Administrator in Council has been pleased to make the following regulations, to take effect as and from the 8th day of September, 1948:—

REGULATIONS UNDER THE "HOSPITAL INSURANCE ACT."

Definitions.

1. For the purpose of these regulations, the term "single person" shall be applied to unmarried persons, divorced persons, widows and widowers without dependents, and married persons legally separated and who are not supporting dependents.

The "head of a family" shall mean:—

(1) A married person who is supporting his spouse:

(2) A person who has a son or daughter wholly dependent upon him for support if the son or daughter is:—

(a) Under 16 years of age:

(b) Sixteen years of age or over and dependent by reason of mental or physical infirmity; or

(c) Under 21 years of age and a student at a secondary school, university, or other educational or vocational institution:

(3) Any person, whether married or not, who supports a dependent within the meaning of these regulations.

The word "employer," when used in the Act or in these regulations, shall include His Majesty the King in the right of the Province of British Columbia.

Dependents.

2. Dependents of the head of the family shall include:—

(a) A wife:

(b) A child under 16 years of age:

(c) A child 16 years of age or over and dependent by reason of physical or mental infirmity:

(d) A child under 21 years of age and a student at a secondary school, university, or other educational or vocational institution:

(e) A child under 21 years of age who is wholly dependent on the head of the family for support and for whom the head of the family, in law or in fact, has the custody and control:

(f) A parent or grandparent, including a parent-in-law and a grandparent-in-law, who is dependent financially on the head of the family:

(g) A brother or sister, a brother-in-law or a sister-in-law, a son-in-law or a daughter-in-law who, because of mental or physical infirmity, is dependent financially on the head of the family.

Registration.

3. Every person liable to pay a premium under the "Hospital Insurance Act" shall register himself and his dependents on the form and within the time prescribed by the Commissioner. The registration form shall be completed to the satisfaction of the Commissioner. Any person failing to register as required shall be guilty of an offence and liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of not more than $10.

Resident Qualification.

4. Notwithstanding the provision of six months' residence as a qualification for eligibility as provided in section 6 of the "Hospital

Insurancee Act," persons coming to British Columbia from outside the Province shall immediately upon obtaining employment become subject to the provisions of the Act and payment of premiums as provided therein.

Premiums.

5. (1) The premium to be paid by a single person shall be $15 per annum; the premium to be paid by the head of a family with one dependent shall be $24 per annum; the premium to be paid by the head of a family with more than one dependent shall be $30 per annum.

(2) In each calendar year there shall be two hospital insurance periods, one of which shall be from January 1st to June 30th, inclusive, and the other from July 1st to December 31st, inclusive.

(3) Premiums shall be paid in advance, either in full or on an instalment plan approved by the Commissioner. Where payment in full of the premium for one calendar year is made, it shall be paid at least one month in advance of the calendar year for which the premium is owing.

(4) Where the payment is to be made in two or more instalments, the payments shall be such as to provide for prepayment of the next ensuing hospital insurance period on or before May 31st or November 30th, as the case may be.

(5) Every employer who has filed an agreement with the Commissioner to make pay-roll deductions shall, after the filing of the agreement and subject to the exemptions provided for in the "Hospital Insurance Act," make and continue to make deductions for all his employees in such amounts as will ensure that his employees shall have completely prepaid their hospital insurance premiums for the next ensuing hospital insurance period. No deduction shall be made by the employer from the wages or salary due to any employee who presents proof of the prepayment of the hospital insurance premium for the next ensuing hospital insurance period.

(6) Notwithstanding subsection (5), the Commissioner may at his discretion exempt the employer from the collection or deduction from an employee's wages of arrears in premium payments until he is authorized to do so by the Commissioner under the provisions of section 11 of the "Hospital Insurance Act."

(7) When the Commissioner is satisfied that deductions from an employee's wages or salary have been made in excess of that required under these regulations, repayment of such excess shall be made by the Commissioner from the Hospital Insurance Fund to the person on whose behalf the excess payment was made.

(8) An employer who files with the Commissioner an agreement to make pay-roll deductions from wages or salaries owing to employees, for the purpose of making premium payments as required in these regulations, is hereby appointed as a collector within the meaning of subsection (3) of section 11 of the "Hospital Insurance Act."

(9) Any employer who has signed the form known as the B.C. Hospital Insurance Service questionnaire, indicating that he has agreed to make pay-roll deductions, shall be deemed to have filed the agreement provided for in subsection (5).

Change of Address or Status.

6. (1) Persons subject to the provisions of the Act shall within thirty days notify the Commissioner with respect to change of address, change of marital status, and change of dependents.

(2) Premiums paid on an annual basis shall be subject to adjustments due to change in status or change in dependents as of January

1st in each year. Premium payments paid on an instalment or semi-annual basis shall be subject to adjustment due to change in status or change in dependents as of January 1st and July 1st in each year.

LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

R. S. STUART YATES,
Clerk, Legislative Assembly.
